Re: Room Sign-Ups

Believe it or not, it is time to choose roommates for the Washington D.C. trip on March 29- March 30, 2011.

STUDENT ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

D.C. is not only a great educational experience, it is also a time for all teams to bond. Please remember this when forming rooms.

- ◆ There are four students to a room (NO MORE/NO LESS). If you do not have four people to a room, turn in the form anyway and the coordinators will help you work out room assignments.
- ◆ If necessary, discuss any problems in confidence with Ms. Fowler (Room 417), before school or during lunch.
- ◆ Each room must have one student designated as the ‘Room Chairperson’ who is in charge of check-in, key assignments, room behavior and checkout procedures.
- ◆ ALL room assignments need to be completed by Friday December 9, 2011.
- ◆ All students must have his/her parents sign the form.
- ◆ The room chairperson should return all four roommate forms together to room 315, please STAPLE all four sheets together.

- 1. (ROOM CHAIRPERSON) _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____

Your signatures verify you agree with the room assignments above and the movie choices on the back.

THE NEWSEUM

The Newseum — a 250,000-square-foot museum of news — will offer visitors an experience that blends five centuries of news history with up-to-the-second technology and hands-on exhibits. Students may take tours of the Newseum’s interactive galleries on news history, the First Amendment, early news, international media and broadcast technology. The Newseum’s collection of historic newspaper front pages, will take students through the greatest news stories of all time, from England’s naval victory over the Spanish Armada in 1588 to the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001, and beyond.
